A Guest Lecture on

“BIOMEDICAL WASTE MANAGEMENT”

Dr. P.V. Ranganayakulu, Professor, Department of Medical Physiology, S.V. Ayurvedic College, Tirupati, delivered a guest lecture on “Biomedical Waste Management” on 5th January, 2012.

Introductory Speech:-

Dr. S.Anuradha, Principal of Sree Vidyanikethan College of Nursing, introduced the day’s guest. In her introduction, she gave a detailed review of the academic record, experience and credentials of the guest. She has given a key note regarding Biomedical Waste Management and its importance and addressed all the members of the auditorium to focus on the speech and conveyed her regards to the speaker.
Dr. P.V. Ranganayakulu opened his speech by giving brief content on the Environmental pollution and its causes, and high – lighting the quantity of Biomedical waste disposed by each hospital which is affecting the human beings and their future generation. He explained about the different types of wastes like solid, liquid and sharps and lab waste etc. are generated in the hospitals during diagnosis, treatment and immunizing the clients. He elaborated the dangers of improper biomedical waste management, which leads to diseases like T.B. HIV, Hepatitis and so on in human beings and also how it endangers the lives of human beings and the animals. He stated the best methods of biomedical waste management like incinerating, autoclaving, micro waves, encapsulations, deep burial and using chemical like hypochlorite.

Dr. P.V. Ranganayakulu, Addressing the audience

Concluding the speech with recommendations to the municipalities, Government, Voluntary organizations, Health personnel and every individual to play a responsible role in proper disposal of biomedical waste.
Vote of thanks:-

Mrs. P.Lavanya Vice-Principal, proposed the vote of thanks on the occasion, she appreciated the delivery of the guest was more initiative and motivating.

!Mrs. P.Lavanya, Vice-Principal, Proposing Vote of Thanks

Question Session:

In response to the invitation, questions by the guest, students and faculty have actively taken part in clarifying their doubts and received good suggestions from the speaker. Students and faculty were richly benefited by the lecture.

!Questions Session
Felicitation:-

The speaker Dr. P.V. Ranganayakulu had been felicitated by Dr. S. Anuradha, Principal and Mrs. P.Lavanya, Vice-Principal, Ms. P.Rajani, HOD of Pediatrics, Ms. C.Padmaja, HOD of Community Health Nursing. All the participants gave a standing ovation to the chief guest.

Felicitation to the Guest